Subject: Holi Celebration on Campus

This is to inform all faculty, students, and staff of the University that, as the festival of colors approaches, you are excited to celebrate Holi on our university campus. The arrival of spring is marked by the festival of colors, which symbolizes the triumph of good over evil. It is a time to celebrate, bond with friends and family, and spread joy.

Please remember to play Holi responsibly and respect everyone's boundaries and be cautious while playing with colors.

1. Do not force anyone into this celebration.
2. Do not use any toxic colors that are harmful to the skin and body.
3. Do not use any acid-based colors which are harmful to participants.
4. Do not get into trouble with any local people or with students of other colleges and villages.
5. Do not play colors inside the hostel premises and rooms.
6. Any damage to the University property, walls of the hostel with colors, you will be held individually responsible.
7. Anyone found forcing students into the celebration will be severely penalized or punished as per the University rules and regulations.

Let's ensure that the celebration is held in a disciplined manner, and everyone feels safe throughout the celebrations.

Yours faithfully
